A Lenten Message

from your Pastor

Getting in the Mood

We're fully into the season of Lent, that 40 day journey that calls us to focus on the Passion of our Lord. Some people give up something to help them remember what Christ gave up for them. Others choose a special project to do to help others remember Christ's suffering and death. I have found that music can aid people during their 40 day Lenten journey. Our Lutheran hymnody is filled with wonderful tunes and poignant verses that greatly enhance these 40 days. Let me share some of these verses with you

*Jesus, I will ponder now On Your holy passion;
With Your Spirit me endow For such meditation.
Grant that I in love and faith May the image cherish
Of Your suff'ring, pain, and death That I may not perish*

*Grant that I Your passion view With repentant grieving.
Let me not bring shame to You By unholy living.
How could I refuse to shun Ev'ry sinful pleasure
Since for me God's only Son Suffered without measure?
[LSB 440 "Jesus, I Will Ponder Now" vv 1, 4]*

For me, this is my prayer to begin Lent. O Lord, let me in these 40 days, truly ponder again your Passion for me. Let me truly look at with repentant grieving, for it was my sins that nailed you to the cross. Let that be your prayer these 40 days.

*You have suffered great affliction And have borne it patiently
Even death by crucifixion, Fully to atone for me;
For you chose to be tormented That my doom should be prevented*

Pastors Message continued

Thousand, thousand thanks are due, Dearest Jesus, unto you
[LW 94 "Christ, the Life of All the Living" vs 2]

Man, to think about the suffering Jesus endured, the suffering I deserve! He willingly, patiently bore it all so that I would not be doomed to eternal death. A thousand thanks seem so small a repayment to Jesus for what he has done for me. A thousand thanks truly is nowhere near the debt that I owe to Jesus for what he has done for me. Still, he does not demand that I pay him back, or else he will place the burden back on me. No, his love for me is far beyond a thousand thanks that I could give back to him. He does it all knowing that I could never repay him. Thank You, Jesus!

*When I survey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of Glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss And pour contempt on all my pride.*

*Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most, I sacrifice them to His blood.*
LSB 425 "When I Survey The Wondrous Cross" vv 1-2]

I read these words and I hear these words of Scripture, "But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world."
[Galatians 6:14] After all it is the cross of Christ on which we focus our attention, all the more during the days of Lent.

In Christ

Return to the Lord

In the Book of Joel, the prophet paints a vivid picture of the coming judgment of God, the Day of the Lord. The imagery is bold and terrifying: hordes of locusts swarming over the land and decimating everything. Joel's prophecy has teeth even today as wars rage, natural disasters threaten and destroy, and our culture seems to be unraveling. But right in the middle of this frightening portent, we find a tender invitation from the Lord: "Return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and He relents over disaster" (Joel 2:13). God's invitation and promise finds its fullness in Jesus Christ, who personifies and accomplishes all that God declares. During this season of Lent, we will consider the theme "Return to the Lord" and examine how the call to return played out in practical ways for the people who walked alongside Christ as He demonstrated and carried out God's grace and mercy on our behalf, taking God's wrath upon Himself, setting the stage for God to "turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind Him" (Joel 2:14).

Each sermon in this series focuses on a particular event in the Passion, with a special focus on the people involved in the event. Studying the events and people helps to connect the hearers with their own sinful nature, to emphasize how we have turned away from the Lord, and to reinforce and rejoice in God's call for us to return to Him with all our heart.

March 3: "Return from Betrayal". 2 Samuel 15:12; 17:1-4 & John 18:1-11

March 10: "Return from False Witness". Leviticus 24:13-16 & Matthew 26:57-68

March 17: "Return from Denial". Luke 22:54-62

March 24: "Return to the Kingdom of God". John 18:28-38

Maundy Thursday [April 1]: "Return to the Table". Mark 14:12-26

Good Friday [April 2]: "Return to Truth". John 19:1-16

Easter Sunday [April 4]: "Return and See". Matthew 28:1-10

On one occasion, Jesus took Peter, James and John up a high mountain to pray. Jesus often went by Himself to pray, but this time He chose to take these select disciples to witness something extraordinary. They were about to witness the radiant glory of their Lord Jesus Christ.

The disciples were weary and fell into a deep sleep (Luke 9:32), but something stirred them to wake them up. A dazzling light shone and the sound of voices were heard, and when they were fully awake, the disciples saw that Jesus' appearance was completely transformed. His face shone like the sun, and His clothes had become radiant, intensely white, beyond what any bleach could make them (Mark 9:3).

As if it were not amazing enough, two men also appeared with Him — Moses and Elijah — and they also appeared in glory; it was not their own glory, but they reflected God's glory. This glory properly belonged to Christ, who, as the only-begotten Son of God and as the Word of God, shared in this glory with the Father, before the foundations of the earth were laid (John 17:5).

But how could these dead men appear with Jesus in glory like this? Were the disciples seeing just images of these men? No, they were not seeing phantoms, but the real patriarch and prophet, alive and conscious; they beheld, as if through an open doorway to paradise, a small glimpse of the company of heaven, and a testimony to the truth that our God is a God of the living, not of the dead (Matt. 22:32; Mark 12:27).

The Glory of God's Children

The disciples not only saw these men with their eyes, but they also heard them with their ears, speaking with Jesus about the events that would soon take place in Jerusalem. They were having a real conversation with Jesus about His departure, both from the land of the living, which He would accomplish on the cross, and from the world, which He would accomplish at His ascension into heaven when He would return to the Father. No wonder they wanted to discuss these things with Jesus, since the Law (represented by Moses) and the prophets (represented by Elijah) all testify about Him.

The truth of His divinity

By displaying His glory this way to these select disciples, Jesus established the truth of His divinity by the testimony of three witnesses, adding their apostolic testimony to that of the Law and the prophets. As leader of the apostles, Peter proclaimed the truth of Jesus' true identity and divinity to the world. James gained the honor of becoming the first among the apostles to suffer martyrdom for the sake of his testimony. And God chose John to testify to His glory in Christ through his Gospel that "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth" (John 1:14).

The apostles also witnessed the Father acknowledging His Son, Jesus, when a cloud enveloped and overshadowed them, and from the cloud came the voice of the Father, saying, "This is my beloved Son . . . listen to him!" (Matt. 17:5).

Just as John the Baptist witnessed the unity of God in three persons at the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan river, when the Father acknowledged the Son and the

THE GLORY OF GOD'S CHILDREN continued

Holy Spirit, who descended in the form of a dove, so the apostles witnessed the unity of the Trinity, as again the Father acknowledged His beloved Son and the Holy Spirit, who appeared in the form of the cloud. For we should not imagine that this cloud brought any darkness, like ordinary rain clouds do, but that it was a cloud like that in the days of Moses, which used to settle over the tent of meeting, as the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

In a few words in the apostles' presence, God the Father settles once and for all the true identity of Jesus. He is not Moses or Elijah, or any of the prophets, as some people were saying; for behold, Moses and Elijah stood beside Him. No, He is as His Father says, His Son. The apostles witness by sight and by hearing the truth that the Father had revealed to Peter, who earlier by faith confessed to Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matt. 16:16).

Glorified in Jesus

The transfiguration displays the glory of the Christ. Often, however, the participation of the saints in His glory gets overlooked in this episode of the Gospel. Their participation in Jesus' glory has important ramifications for all Christians. For although all glory properly belongs to God alone, He also promises to glorify those who believe. The believers' reward, for whom faith in Christ is accounted as righteousness, includes beholding the glory of God and seeing His face. In this way, the faithful will also be glorified.

Just as God allows the holy angels to partake in His glory (Luke 2:9; 9:26), so He allows the saints to partake in the same glory. Jesus gives to His disciples the glory that the Father gives Him (John 17:22; 1 Peter 5:1). Just as Jesus' lowly body under which His divinity was concealed on earth was glorified on the mount of transfiguration, so our lowly bodies on the day of resurrection will be made like His glorious body (Phil. 3:21).

The apostle Paul says that God will give eternal life to those who patiently do good and seek for glory, honor and immortality (Rom. 2:6–7), not because we should seek to receive these in this life or even think that we deserve them in the next, but because we know and believe that God promises these eternal blessings as free gifts to those whom He justifies by faith in Jesus Christ. For "those whom he justified he also glorified" (Rom. 8:30).

Indeed, Christians may look forward with joyful anticipation to the promise of such glory as was manifested in Moses and Elijah at the transfiguration. And in hope of the fulfillment of this promise, Christians find great consolation and strength to endure the trials of this world: "For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison" (2 Cor. 4:17).

At the transfiguration, the Father identifies Jesus as His Son. As adopted sons, we also have cause to rejoice since, like the adopted sons Moses and Elijah, we will live with Him in His glory. "The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs — heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us" (Rom. 8:16–18).

The Rev. Dr. Edward Naumann lives and serves in South Asia, as theological educator for The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod.

Life Quotes for March

March 7 “Whether you are five or 35 or 65, there will be days when it seems to you that God has dropped it. When that happens, when the darkness threatens to close in on you, just go back to the simple truth that God taught you in your youth. Go back to the Word of Light, the Word that is Christ. ‘Jesus loves me, this I know, for the Bible tells me so.’ That will lighten the way for you, for us all.” Rev. Dr. Dale A. Meyer, The Lutheran Hour – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org

March 14 “Christ does not refuse our sense of tragedy or awareness of pain. He bears it in love, affirming our condition, carrying our sorrows to the end, all the way to the heart of God.” Jill Carattini, Ravi Zacharias International Ministries – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org

March 21 “We affirm again and again that God handmade all people and Jesus died for all people. And that means ALL lives are valuable and equally loved.” Michelle Bauman, Director of Y4Life for Lutherans For Life – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org

March 28 “Good Friday shows us—in case there was any doubt before—that something is wrong with the world, something worth mourning deeply ... There will be a time when God wipes all of these tears from our eyes. We are not there yet, but we can surely take heart in the knowledge that God is close to the brokenhearted.” Derek Caldwell, Ravi Zacharias International Ministries – A Life Quote from Lutherans For Life • lutheransforlife.org

Jail Bibles Update

The jail bibles were delivered earlier this month to the Lake County Jail. The Jail supervisor asked that I relay his thanks for the Bibles we provided. He was grateful for them and is praying that they will do some good for the inmates. It was determined that we could supply the Bible cheat sheets (sheets that help walk them through the Bible) but we were not permitted to paste them inside the bibles. The reason for this is that each bible must be inspected for contraband and the inspection would have resulted in the sheets being torn out.

Here are a few photos to help put this large Outreach project in perspective...

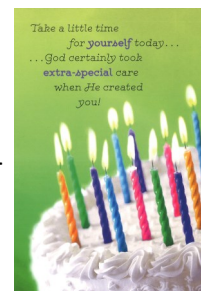

Many thanks to all who donated to the money needed to make this project a success,

Kristi McConnell

Greeting Cards

The Outreach Committee would like thank everyone who has purchased our greeting cards. The rack was getting quite empty!! It has been re-supplied and several new card designs are on order. Watch for new supplies to be added in the next few weeks.

Movie Nights Are Back!!!

At our last meeting, the Outreach Committee developed a plan on how we can safely social-distance at movie nights. To help us put Christ's sacrifice for us in perspective, we will be showing Mel Gibson's, "The Passion of the Christ." This movie is rated R for violent content and not recommended for children. It is an immensely powerful movie of Christ's arrest, crucifixion, and resurrection. We hope you will join us on the Friday before Holy Week, March 26th at 7 p.m. to watch this film. Pre-packaged snacks and drinks will be available for nominal prices.

St. Paul's Movie Event – Mel Gibson's "The Passion of the Christ!!"

March 26th at 7 p.m.

Free Admission

Movie Description: This film primarily covers the final twelve hours before Jesus' death, consisting of the Passion, hence the title of the film. It begins with the Agony in the Garden of Olives (or Gethsemane), the betrayal of Judas Iscariot, the brutal Scourging at the Pillar, the suffering of the Blessed Virgin Mary as prophesied by Simeon, the crucifixion and death of Christ, and ends with a brief depiction of His Resurrection. The film includes flashbacks to particular moments in Christ's life, some of which are Biblically based, such as The Last Supper and The Sermon on the Mount, and others that are artistic license, such as when Mary comforts Jesus and the scene where Jesus is crafting a table.

A concession stand will serve the following eats and drinks at minimal prices:

Candy Bars

Pop

Cookies

Water

Potato Chips

NOTE: This film is rated R due to the portrayal of Christ's suffering and is not recommended for small children.
